

CAMPAIGN NONVIOLENCE MEMPHIS WEEK OF ACTION • SEPT. 19-27

2020 SCHEDULE OF EVENTS • Visit cnvmemphis.org for more details

All Events via Zoom or Facebook Live. Visit cnvmemphis.org for links.

Saturday, Sept. 19 • 10 - 11 am

I AM US (USA) 2020 Interfaith & International Gathering Uniting for World Peace and Unity

Hosted by Viswayogi Foundation and the Unity Church of Practical Christianity

Join us for singing in Sanskrit for World Peace. Swami Viswayogi Maharaj will be giving a discourse. Rev. Quinton from Unity Church of Practical Christianity will lead the prayer for Unity and Peace. Bhai Amarjeet Singh from the Sikh faith will also chant prayers for World peace. Then we will all join in chanting together (15 min.) for peace and unity. Members of the Viswayogi Foundation from all across USA and India will be joining in via Facebook. Join this Facebook Live Stream Event at: <https://www.facebook.com/UCPCMemphis>. Contact Anjana Challa at achalla@rocketmail.com or Mona Winfrey winfreyrm@yahoo.com

Saturday, Sept. 19 • 2 pm

Battu, an Odissi Indian Dance performed by Mark Brown

SPONSORED BY

Contact Sacirani Roy at saciranidd@yahoo.com

Saturday, Sept. 19 • 5 pm

Bahá'í Fireside

BAHÁ'Í FAITH

We welcome you to join us for a Baha'i fireside where we offer that world peace is tied to our duty to create an ever advancing civilization. We further explore how conflicting narratives ultimately hinder us from that world peace and suggest an all embracing narrative founded on the oneness of mankind to help us achieve our aim.

For more information contact Dennis Didier at didierm5@aol.com

Sunday, Sept. 20 • 2 pm

108 Sun Salutations:

This traditional yoga practice will be dedicated to world peace and nonviolence. Join us at the TD Yoga and Meditation Facebook page for a live, online yoga practice.

For more information contact Debbie Burch at dburch@earthlink.net

Monday, Sept. 20 • 5-6:30 pm Daily

Tuesday, Sept. 21
Wed., Sept. 22

Peace and Harmony Days

Hosted by Pema Karpo Meditation Center

Peace and Harmony Days: Buddhist monk and scholar Khenpo Gawang Rinpoche will teach about cultivating and practicing peace and compassion in our lives and will lead practices for peace. Join us on Facebook live at Pema Karpo. Check the cnvmemphis.org website for a recorded message from Khenpo Gawang Rinpoche. This Buddhist monk and scholar and Spiritual Director of Pema Karpo Meditation Center in Memphis, TN will speak on how to cultivate a life of peace, compassion, and non-harming.

Note: This is a 3-Day Event
For more information contact Debbie Burch at dburch@earthlink.net

Monday, Sept. 21 • 7 pm

Hosted by Charles Belenky cbelenky@gmail.com.

Between WWII & the Death of JFK

Join us for a discussion on peace movements between WWII and Vietnam, with a concentration on activists such as Dorothy Day, Bertrand Russel, and David Dellinger (one of the founders of the War Resisters League).

Tuesday, Sept. 22 • 7 pm

From white supremacist to human rights advocate: An evening with TM Garret

A KKK member in Germany, Garret tells an amazing story of transformation – how the kindness shown by a Muslim family contradicted his white supremacist beliefs. In a brief time, he also realized that the hate he had for other people and religions was also unfounded. Learn how new found respect for people of races and religions drives his work for peace and social justice.

Contact TM Garret at TM@TMGarret.com

Wednesday, Sept. 23 • 7 pm

The 2nd Concert for a Nonviolent Memphis Sponsored by South Main Sounds & the Memphis Songwriters Association

Many of the stars from last year's Halloran Centre Concert will return, joined by singer songwriters to celebrate peace and nonviolence. The Facebook Live performance will originate from South Main Sounds. Artists will perform from their stage and via Zoom. Don't miss it!

Contact Paul Crum at bartart@bellsouth.net

Thursday, Sept. 24 • 7 pm

Meet the MICAH Youth Council

A panel of youth activists provide their perspective on peace and justice.

For more information contact Janiece Lee at janiece@micahmemphis.org

Friday, Sept. 25 • 7 pm

Meditation for Non-Harming:

Hosted by TD Yoga & Meditation

In this 30-minute meditation, participants will first develop a calm and tranquil mind, then do a loving kindness meditation for the Memphis area and beyond.

Join us at the TD Yoga and Meditation Facebook page for a live, online practice.

Contact Debbie Burch at dburch@earthlink.net

Saturday, Sept. 24 • 7 pm

Hosted by the Memphis Interfaith Coalition for Action & Hope

Join us for a panel discussion featuring a combination of clergy and lay leaders discussing why justice work is relevant, important work for all of us, how the work can be done, and what needs to happen during this time.

